Additional information

In general, all retail depositors and businesses are covered by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme. There are exceptions for certain deposits and certain depositors. Exceptions are stated on the website of the Deposit Guarantee Scheme. Your credit institution will also inform you on request whether certain products or deposits are covered or not. If deposits are covered, the credit institution shall also confirm this on the statement of account.

Footnotes

- (1) Your deposit is covered by a deposit guarantee scheme. If insolvency of your credit institution should occur, your deposits would be repaid up to EUR 100.000.
- (2) If a deposit is unavailable because a credit institution is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by a deposit guarantee scheme. This repayment covers at maximum EUR 100.000 per person and per credit institution. This means that all deposits at the same credit institution are added up in order to determine the coverage level (subject to the application of legal and contractual provisions in relation to netting between accounts which may show a positive or negative balance). If, for instance, a depositor holds a savings account with EUR 90.000 and a current account with EUR 20.000, he or she will be indemnified only up to a maximum amount of EUR 100.000. Deposits and persons eligible to the Deposit Guarantee Scheme are as stated in article L. 312-4-1 of the French monetary and financial code (for more details, please refer to the website of the French Deposit Guarantee Scheme).
- (3) In case of joint accounts, the limit of EUR 100.000 applies to each depositor.
- (4) The Deposit Guarantee Scheme will repay deposits covered by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme to the depositors that benefit from such guarantee seven working days from the date on which the Autorité de Contrôle Prudentiel et de Résolution determines the unavailability of the deposits with the relevant credit institution that have adhered to such Deposit Guarantee Scheme, in accordance with article L. 312-5 of the French monetary and financial code. This 7 working day period concerns the indemnity payments which don't entail a special processing or require further information or investigation to determine the reimbursement amount or the depositor's identification.

The payment of the indemnity may take place, at the discretion of the Deposit Guarantee Scheme, either:

- by cheque sent by letter with acknowledgement of receipt; or
- by the required information on a secure website, specially opened to this effect by the Fund and accessible through its official website, in order to allow the beneficiary to indicate the references of the account on which he wants the indemnification to be transferred.
